	always easy to predict where the demand is going to be; it takes time to identify and negotiate new sites to meet the demand. . <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • FSL staff prefers a proactive approach but with so many variables, sometimes have to be reactive • board offers transportation according to Policy 20 & 80 to support equity in immersion/extended Five New SK Immersion Sites for September 2014: 1. Melody Village - new SKFI site in North Etobicoke as a result of Ward 1 PARC <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thanked member of the committee and especially Trustee John Hastings and Dina Pizolinas, FSLAC Ward 2 Representative • Will become French immersion centre with English program to be gradually phased out • There is a lot of support from FSL parents who participated in public meetings • Melody Village has 2 SK immersion classes in Sept. 2. Islington JMS- catchment of John English split, Islington has 1 SK immersion class in Sept. 3. Blake Street – to help with overflow from Earl Beatty and RH Mc Gregor, Blake has 2 SK immersion classes in Sept 4. Bowmore – to help with overflow from Duke of Connaught, Bowmore has 1 SK immersion class in Sept 5. Perth-to place 21 applicants from Perth who will not fit in Regal Road, Perth has 1 SK immersion class in Sept. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Perth needs to create more classroom space as students move up grades, looking at the library to make a 4th class, reconsidering space leased to Toronto Catholic DSB and possibly adding portables Two New JR Extended Sites for September 2014: 1. Chester – to help with overflow from Diefenbaker & Wilkinson in the Don Mills area 2. Rene Gordon – to help with overflow from Cassandra and Dunlace in East York Registration Dates and Discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Staff is considering switching the dates for registration of Junior Extended Immersion to January and Early Immersion to late fall. This would allow improved planning and adaptation of programs in response to enrolment numbers. • Staff has noted that most acceptances on PARS seem to come right at the start of the registration process • FSLAC members suggested that parents be surveyed on when they make the decision to enrol their children in French. • Trustee Gough expressed concern that the fall may be too early for parents to make the decision. Their children only just started JK and at the TDSB and parents may want to see how their children are adapting to school life before adding FSL . 	FSL Registration Dates Discussion to be continued at the next meeting.
