

Enhanced Language Training (ELT)

Cours de langue de niveau avancé (CLNA)

Frequently Asked Questions

1. I am an Employer and have my own business can I collaborate with ELT?

- Yes, as an employer or an HR personnel representing an organization you can:
 - Host an internationally trained professional as a volunteer placement participant
 - Hire an internationally trained professional
 - Access grants and various resources offered to support internationally trained professional
 - Collaborate with a skilled Job Developer to learn step by step process to partner with ELT
 - To learn more and connect with a Job Developer please email us at eltempolement@tdsb.on.ca

2. What are the eligibility criteria for the ELT program?

- The full eligibility criteria for ELT can be found here: Enhanced Language Training \(ELT\)

3. I am a Temporary resident (such as foreign student, foreign worker, work visa or visitor visa) and I really want to take the ELT program. Can I join ELT?

- No, clients must have one of the following status to participate in the ELT program
 - Permanent Residence
 - Convention Refugee (Notice of Decision required, see question 2)
 - Landed immigrant

4. I am a refugee claimant. Can I join the ELT program?

- Yes, only if you have a Notice of Decision
- For the full details please see the ELT eligibility criteria (see question 2)

5. I was sponsored by my spouse and am waiting for my PR Card. Can I join the ELT program?

- Yes, if you have your Record of Landing (ROL)
- Yes, if your application for Permanent Resident status is being processed in Canada
- AND you have been informed by a letter from Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada of the initial approval of your application subject to an admissibility assessment
- This means you have approval-in-principle

6. I am a Canadian citizen. Can I join the ELT program?

- No, because you do not meet the ELT eligibility criteria (see question 2)
- For employment support please visit: www.next-steps.ca

Operated by:

Funded by:

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada

Financé par :

Immigration, Réfugiés et Citoyenneté Canada

Enhanced Language Training (ELT)

Cours de langue de niveau avancé (CLNA)

- For language programs please visit: www.esltoronto.ca

7. I only want to learn English (ESL). Can I join the ELT program?

- To learn English, visit: www.esltoronto.ca or www.211toronto.ca

8. I have IELTS, CELPIP or I attended adult high school and completed an English credit, can I join ELT?

- No, you must have a CLB score of 6 or above to join the ELT program

9. Do I have to do the CLB assessment? What is CLB assessment?

- Yes, CLB is mandatory to participate in the ELT program
- CLB stands for Canada Language Benchmarks. It is a free assessment conducted by the YMCA Language Assessment Centre or Achève Language Assessment Locations
- You will be assessed for Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing
- It is done in person and by appointment only
- Due to the pandemic, all assessment is currently virtual. We can help you book a virtual CLB assessment appointment

10. I do not have experience working in Canada, but I have experience in my home country working in my field, can I join ELT?

- Yes, if you have at least one of the following:
 - international experience in your selected industry/sector
 - international education in your selected industry/sector
 - training in your selected industry/sector
- For full details please see the ELT eligibility criteria (see question 2)

11. I do not know how to write a resume for Canadian job market, and the eligibility requires me to submit my resume. Can I get some help before I submit it to ELT?

- Yes, we can help you, please email us at eltempolement@tdsb.on.ca
- You do not need to submit a perfect resume. The goal of the ELT program is to provide training on employability skills and assist with job search strategies needed to succeed in the current job market.

12. I still have more questions

- If you have further questions, clarifications or would like to speak to someone, please email us at eltempolement@tdsb.on.ca

Operated by:

Funded by:

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada

Financé par :

Immigration, Réfugiés et Citoyenneté Canada